IN THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT!

*I had twelve bottles of whisky in my cellar and my wife told me
to empty them down the sink, or else.
I proceeded with this very unpleasant task ---
I withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass, which I drank.
I removed the cork from the second bottle and did likewise
but for one glass, which I drank.
I withdrew the cork from the third bottle and poured
the whisky down the sink drinking one glass.
I pulled the cork from the fourth sink and poured the bottle down the glass, which I drank.
I pulled the bottle from the cork next and drank one sink of it, and threw the rest down the glass and poured the cork down the bottle.*

*Then I corked the sink with the glass, bottled the drink and drank the pour.
When I had everything emptied, I steadied the house with one hand counted the bottles, corks, glasses, and sinks with the other hand, which were twenty-one, and as the houses came by I counted them again.
I had finally counted all the houses and one bottle,
which I drank.
I'm not under the affluence of incohol but thinkle
peep I am
I'm not half so thunk as you might drink. I fool so feelish.
I don't know who is me, and the drunker I stand here,
the longer I get.*

Christmas Cheer

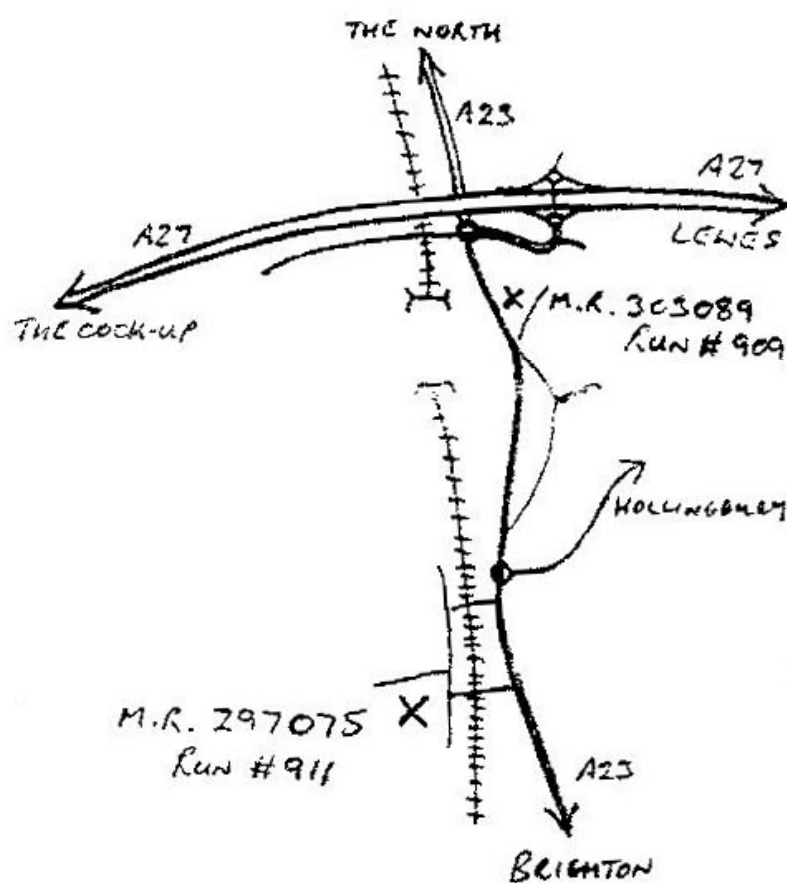

Did you have to be with unwanted relatives over Christmas and the New Year when you'd rather have been in the pub? Here's some suggestions answering questions they are likely to ask next time Christmas comes around...

What are you celebrating over the twelve days ?	Nothing except being in a real ale haze.
Have you done all your Christmas shopping ?	been too busy drinking real ale with plenty of dry hopping.
Want a mince pie ?	A pint of Hardington I'd rather buy.
Celebrating the joys of Advent ?	forget all that, you want beers from Dent.
Putting up some decorations ?	Rather have pale ale from All Nations.
Going to out up a tree ?	Leave it growing and go for Hogs Back T.E.A.
Would you like some roast turkey ?	I'd sooner be forced to drink Whitbread that's murky.
...And what about some Christmas pud ?	Stuff that, I'll have beer from the wood.
Are you celebrating on Christmas day ?	No way, in the pub I'll stay.
Aren't you going to church ?	No, on a bar stool I'll perch.
So you're not singing a selection of hymns ?	Rejected for a selection of Whim's.
Looking forward to getting some cards ?	Not half as much as Old Original from Everard's.
Going out to the shops to get some gifts ?	No, going out to the pub to get pifts!
What about the carol singers ?	Shut them up with a round of Blackbeard Dead Ringers.
Looking forward to Christmas dinner ?	No, the next beer festival where I can drink another "winner"!
Where are you celebrating New Year ?	Somewhere I can celebrate trying a new beer.
Watching the Queen's speech ?	For a pint and some ear plugs I will reach.
Watching "The Sound of Music" on telly ?	There's more entertainment in my pint of Cheriton Old Grumble Belly!
Aren't you going to pray ?	Yes, for a pint of Guernsey Braye.
But it's the season to be jolly... ..	Only over a pint of Tolly...
...And to be merry !	Or maybe real cider or perry!
Going down to Santa's Grotto ?	No, I'll be at the bar getting blotto.
But you'll miss Santa Claus !	The symbol of commercialism, UP YOURS!

BACCUS RESTAURANT, HASOCKS - SIMON & LES
(GOLF CLUB OPPOSITE FRIARS OAK PUB.)

Les was quick to point out that this years change of venue for once has nothing to do with us being banned! The Bolney Stage is in the process of being sold by Whitbread and consequently they have been unable to take any bookings for Christmas.

Baccus Restaurant opposite the Friars Oak pub, Hassocks offers an ideal place for our Christmas hash & consequently we would be grateful if food throwing could be kept to a minimum and, if possible, solids only!

RUN #914 - 24TH DECEMBER, 1995
 BLACK LION, PATCHAM - RAY & ROSEMARY
 CHRISTMAS FAMILY HASH (SEE RUN #911)

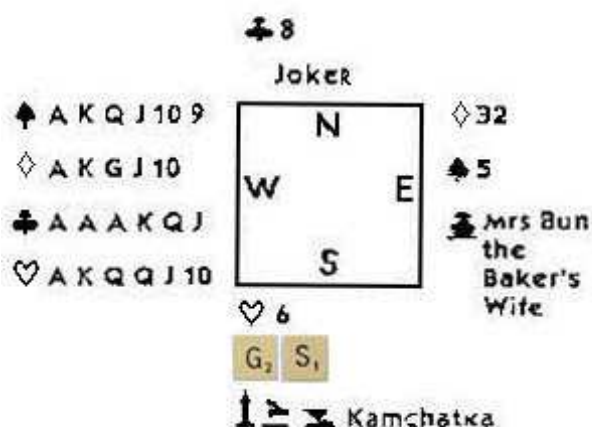

Now that the 900th run has gone it's time to look towards the 1000th run in August 1997. It may seem early but in the hash tradition we should extend a BH7 style welcome to other chapters to join us for a celebration run and bash. The original plan to abandon this years Christmas run as Christmas Day falls on a Monday was greeted with horror by some hashers not wishing to miss a week and Ray and Rosemary have kindly stepped in to do a family hash on Christmas Eve at the Black Lion, Patcham at 11 a.m.

The result is that the 1000th run will fall one week before the August Bank Holiday (barring government intervention!), and so another suggestion is that we have a special BH7 only celebration for the 1000th and a 1001 BH7 nights bash on the bank holiday. Whatever is decided on now is probably the time to get the organisation started and any volunteers to assist would be very useful.

BRIDGE PROBLEM

What the hell is going on here?

North and East discover that both have been marking the cards, using the symbols but with different meanings. West passes a spade with difficulty, swings his partner to the right and emerges to confront South eight miles to the East, from where his artillery can operate out of range of North's radar. Winds Southerly, Force 8.

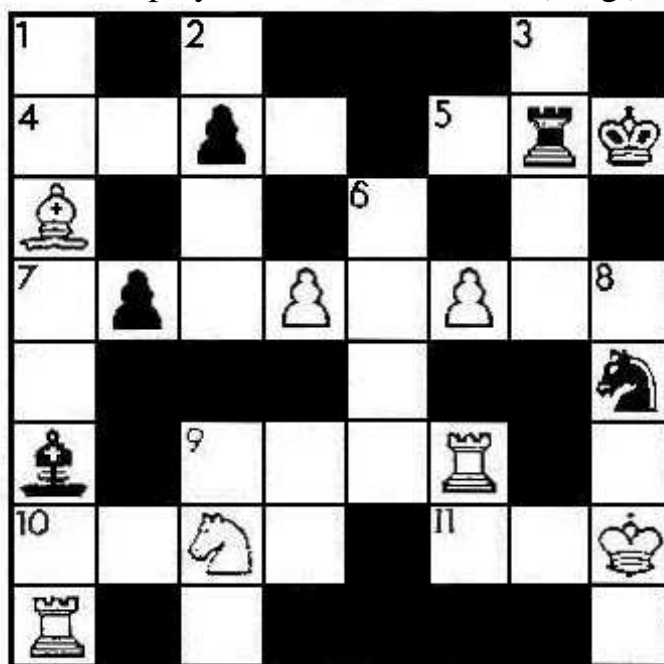

Solution to Bridge Problem 234

Across the Bosphorous, joining Europe to Asia Minor with a single span of 4,389 feet.

CHESS PROBLEM

SET BY ATAHUALPA

White to play and win in ten down (anag.)

Heseltine's dilemma writ large – cut, and run or let it all hang out! (Remember what happened to Boyson in last week's tussle with Sassoon). K9 to Q until set.

DK Djugashvili, our regular Chess Editor, is on holiday.
