

Trash #321 January 2023

Unless indicated, all r*ns are on Mondays at 19.00pm and all directions/ timings are approximate starting from Patcham roundabout A23/A27 junction. Please adjust journey time accordingly from your location.

DATE	#NO	ON ON	Post Code	HARES
2nd January 2023	2290	Six Bells, Chiddingly	BN8 6HT	On On Don
Directions: A27 east to Lewes. A26 then B2132 through Ringmer. B2124 to Golden Cross. Turn right on A22 then next left. Keep left and pub is approx. 1.5 miles. Est 30 mins.
9th January 2023	2291	Jack & Jill Clayton	BN6 9PD	Fukarwe
Directions: North on A23, stay in left hand lane and filter on to A273. Pub on left after Clayton Hill. Est. 5 mins.
16th January 2023	2292	BN6 Bar. Hassocks TBC	BN6 8AR	Dangleberry
Directions: North on A23 filter left on A273 over Clayton Hill. Turn right at Stone Pound traffic lights, pub just past Grand Avenue on right hand side opposite Boots, approx. 1/2 mile. Free parking in Dale Avenue carpark BN6 8LN. Est. 15 minutes
23rd January 2023	2293	Bull, Shermanbury	BN5 9AD	One Erection
Directions: A23 north to A281. Follow through Henfield. Pub on left just after Picnic Area. Aka Pizza hut! Est. 25 mins.
30th January 2023	2294	Stanley Arms, Portslade	BN41 1SS	Ride it Baby
Directions: A27 west to 2nd exit, Hangleton link. At traffic lights turn right on Old Shoreham Road. Through next traffic lights then left just before Texaco garage into Wolseley Road. Pub on right but parking can be tricky. Est 10 mins.

06/02/2023	2295	The Horse, Hurstpierpoint	Lily The Pink
13/02/2023	2296	Saddlescombe Farm	St Bernard
20/02/2023	2297	Cuckmere Inn, Exceat Bridge	Black
Stockings
27/02/2023	2298	New Oak. Patcham	Drambulie & BB

A CRAFT tour of Brighton's best fireplace pubs! ## note change of date! ##

10/02/2023 18.00 P trail from Brighton Station - Dangleberry

CRAP UK H3:

05/02/2023 11.00am Kingscote Vineyards

Hare: Dangleberry

Hastings H3 - r*ns start 10.66am (11.06am) unless indicated

12/02/2023 Battle Great Woods. Marley Lane c/p TN33 ORB

Hares: Bushsquatter & Cliffbanger

W&NK H3 joint with OCH3: Celebrating Belgrano's 1000th

19/02/2023 11.00 Woldingham Village Club

Hares: Sir Ray and Possum

ononononononononononononononononon

Thought for the day: Don't resolve to give up beer for Dry January. It's just a new year not April Fools Day!

BH7 HASH EVENTS DIARY & NOTICES

DIARY DATES – see full list of events being attended by Brighton hashers on website under Away Hashes:

06-10/04/2023 Sloshed in Sitges with FUK FMH3
30/6-2/7/2023 Funny French Weekend at the Kirks near Gorron. Full details will be available in the next issue of the Boggy Shoe, but essentially this is a pay as you go weekend. Book your own crossing and, if not camping, your own accommodation. Please let Bouncer or Bollocks know if planning on attending.

17-20/08/2023 Eurohash - Baarlo, The Netherlands at The Dutch Castle de Berckt – Full

25-28/08/2023 UK Nash Hash Beverley, Yorkshire – REGISTRATION OPENS 10am on 11th March 2023.

This event is limited to 500 places and there will be an enormous amount of interest from overseas hashers as it is just one week after Eurohash, so set your alarms!

08-10/03/2024 Interhash Queenstown, New Zealand - <https://www.interhash2024.com/>

Hash mismanagement, the latest who's who:

GM	Pete 'Local Knowledge' Eastwood
On-Sec	Don 'On-Don' Elwick
Webfart	Brent 'Keeps It Up' Crowle
Hare Raiser	Ivan 'Fukarwe' Lyons
Beer Monster	Kit 'Knightrider' Dawson
RA's	Dave 'Dangleberry' King
Hash Cash	John 'Bouncer' Biggins
Hash Trash	Kit 'Knightrider' Dawson
Haberhash	John 'Bouncer' Biggins
Hash Horn	Kayleen 'Wildbush' Holland
SDW relay	Matt 'Rebel WHK' Spencer
Hashtorian	Tim 'Lily the Pink' Jones
Christmas Hash	David 'Spreadsheet' Evans
Hash awards	Pat 'Ride-It, Baby' Morfitt
	Tim 'Lily the Pink' Jones
	Ivan 'Fukarwe' Lyons

BH7 have been invited join a joint WNK, EGH, OCH, BH7 hash with a celebrity dress theme in the summer. The celebrity has given their approval and the aim is to fill the pub with lookalikes!

This has been set for the evening of Monday 14th August so get the date in your diaries, and start sorting your outfits.

Hi Bouncer,

Here's the official info! Janet Street Porter has asked for photos to put on Loose Women!! Whacky enough?!

Westerham and North Kent H3 are having a Celebrity Hash run from the Kentish Horse in Markbeech, Kent. We want to fill the Kentish Horse with Janet Street Porters.

Janet Street Porter has been contacted and has given us permission to have a run where all the Hashers are dressed as JSP. Of course, after the run we will be in the pub where a contest for the most lifelike JSP will take place. There will also be a prize for a JSP that talks like the original !!

Janet Street Porter has said that if we get some photos she may be able to get them on Loose Women. (At last a chance to appear on telly !)

We are contacting OCH3, EGH3, Guildford, Barnes and others.

Best regards Dave Cordrey – aka Breaking Wind aka Britney Spears

On on, Fetherlite!

Subject: Compton Challenge – 20th May 2023

Dear BHHH secretary,

I hope you don't mind being emailed out of the blue but I am contacting running clubs in the region in an attempt to raise the profile of the Compton Challenge (Saturday 20th May 2023) which will be returning to the race calendar after an absence of 3 years.

The new look, Compton Challenge comprises a full marathon, plus a 16 mile race which start/finish on the Compton village recreation ground (RG20 6NP). These are trail races which follow scenic tracks and paths that pass through and over the Berkshire Downs.

Please could you share this link with any of your members who you think would enjoy our race

<http://www.comptonharriers.co.uk/WebPlus/Challenge.html>

Best wishes,

Martin Fray (Compton Harriers – Chairman) Email: m.fray@hotmail.co.uk

A couple of web updates of note:

A new map of all 52 trails of 2022 : <http://www.brightonhash.co.uk/wheredowehash/BH7%20Hash-2022-map.html>

An updated map of all known trails going back 13 years : <http://www.brightonhash.co.uk/wheredowehash/BH7-last-13%20years.html>

On On Issue #31 has been uploaded : <http://www.brightonhash.co.uk/Misc/2022-Xmas.pdf> - The magazine includes a tribute to Phil.

Cheers and on on, Keeps It Up

Embracing Christmas Inside ^{PAGE 3} Today

Perfect Christmas Shirts for Couples!

REHASHING the Christmas Hash:

Hi Hashers,

A big thank you to all who helped organise the Xmas Hash Bash, in particular Anybody, who set the trail and hosted the sip stop; Lily the Pink, Bouncer, Pondweed/Fukarwe, Rebel without his keys and Dangleberry for presenting awards, Psychlepath for the music, KIU and Dangleberry for IT and Knightrider and Wildbush for counting the pennies.

Thanks to all who came and made it another memorable night.

Thinking of absent hashers, past and present, who we all miss.

Have a peaceful Christmas. On On, Ride It Baby xx

And thank you RiB for once again taking overall responsibility in making sure we have another great Christmas hash, party, and awards night! Reviews by Bouncer (r*n) and Dangleberry (balance):

Run 2288 The Hassocks Hotel, Hassocks – Quite honestly the Christmas hash r*n is almost an irrelevance with the wealth of activity to follow but Ride-It, Baby had gone to all the effort of setting so the opportunity was taken to don our finest Christmas fancy dress, including a stunning light filled poncho by Bonking Queen, and head off through the tunnel to the west side of the station. Trail continued along Stanford Avenue, up Stonepound then along Little Copse Road to find the tunnel under the railway. Up Woodsland there was a brief off-road, against the run of play, to Oak Tree Drive. After a cunning check on Grand Avenue we continued down Ockley Lane where the assumption of a sip at Badgers place actually took us in roughly the right direction for the actual sip at Anybody's new abode, although the insistence of some that he lived opposite the Greyhound threw us briefly! Mulled wine and victualled up we retraced our steps for a simple route straight home along the Keymer Road to change into sparkly and posh gear, charge our glasses with the hash complimentary pint of Harvey's Old or Best, and rattle the cutlery!

BQ dominated the hash photos!

Then in a dining version of musical chairs, the 36 attending found pew either side of two long tables. And while the pack awaited their starters orders, an ensemble cast of Xmas RA's launched somewhat chaotically into the awards, numbered here for ease-of-digestion: 1) Hare Of The Year, awarded by Rebel Without His Keys, to, drumroll, Lily The Pink. And this was deservedly received for the theatrical reveal masterclass that was the August run 2269 from The John Harvey Tavern in Lewes. That morphed to the taproom of the Harvey's Brewery itself, with free beer! The award prize was Rebel's hash horn, although only 'metaphysically', as Rebel will retain the role, and indeed the horn, is that right? Infact, Lily The Pink was awarded also an appropriately-pink tiara, for Best Hash, and Best Sip, for that memorable run. The bar is set high for 2023! 2) Conveniently, with LTP on-stage, and speedily as his starter was getting cold, he then awarded International Hasher Of The Year to Gromit. This for his travels so far-and-wide that we don't know where he's been (for a trip to New Zealand which he's yet to make, but trying to garner support for Interhash Queenstown! Ed.) The prize was a fitting ship's wheel. 3) Resuming after starters, Pondweed awarded the Best Hasher / Fastest Hasher prize of a pair of bell-ended pink elf boots, with white furry trim, to Sticky Balls. Indeed SB later donned the boots, for some fairy-footwork moves on the dancefloor. 4) Dangleberry then awarded the Best Newcomer prize of a cuddly reindeer, to a harriet who has brought a sparkling light to BH7. And no more so than during the run, with her illuminated technicolour dream cape, it was Bonking Queen. 5) Next up, Bouncer awarded the Getting Lost prize to On On Don, and in-absentia from the bash, Pompette. This for their joint haring of the November run 2285, from The Blacksmith's Arms in Halland. Specifically, for having the pack twice circuit a mist-swirled field, before on-haring the exit. For which the pair were awarded the FOOTPATH finger-pointer prize. That this year was augmented with a second such pointer, pointing in the opposite direction, one way for On On Don and the other for Pompette! This second pointer was dropped off at the start of the bash proceedings, by a hasher I recognise but know not the name, who then headed. 6) With the main dishes arriving, this award wodge was concluded with Ride It Baby's presentation of the tutu-adorned pewter tankard Best Fancy Dress prize, to BQ. That of course, was for her glowing gossamer cape, that showed us the way in the bash hash winter's gloom. 7) Resuming before desserts with the Numpty award, Bouncer first listed the runners-up, namely Angel for her torch loss on Rebel's snowy December run 2287, from the White Horse in Ditchling. And then Prince Crashpian, for not picking-up on heavy clue dropping as to the bash hash sipstop host: 'It could be Anybody'. And 'It's Anybody's guess'. Thanks, Anybody, for I reckon this year's best homemade mulled wine :-). The winner though was RIB, for accidentally smashing the handle of her just-purchased mug, that was destined to be her award! 8) Handily with RIB on-stage, it was then her turn to award a pair of oval-framed portraits, that featured hounds, to our 4-legged hashers. The Best Attending Hash Dog award went to LTP's You Stupid Bastard, aka Bentley, and accepted by 'Uncle' One Erection. With the Runner Up Hash Dog award going to Drambulie and Bosom Boy's un-attending Just Rico. 9) Continuing the canine theme, St Bernard received the no-contest Hilliest Route award, for any-and-all of his trails. With the prize of a mug with intact handle handed over by Bouncer. 10) Dangleberry was then up for what he cautioned would be a lengthy 'after-dinner speech' award for Spiciest Hash, featured in separate panel. With prize of a string of alternating red+green chillis, on neck-worn yoke. But first though, DB made special mention of Pondweed's earlier wardrobe malfunction, that saw him mis-align his tartan waistcoat buttons. Upon which he failed to reassure with the admission 'I'll sort myself out in the toilet'. 11) RIB awarded the Hash Burka to Drambulie, for reasons that escape your author, followed by the pair's energetic dance leading. 12) Concluding the ceremonials, LTP conferred Best Hat award, and also the brand-new Ridiculously Long Award Speech award, on Dangleberry, with prize of a green corduroy cap. With the winning hats being DB's 'Rondolph Weasley' moose on white woolly hat, hat. And his Dog's Xmas plush toy set, featuring roast turkey and squeaky carrot+sprout, likewise attached to white woolly hat, hat. And with that, the tables were pushed back, and the after-dinner dancing got improperly underway.

Spiciest Hash award: With four runners-up, the pack were in for a marathon spiel, clocking-in at 15 minutes. 1) First-up, it was hare Jenny Greenteeth, for her December run 2287 White Horse sipstop-serve of spiced rum and cinnamon-spiced biscuits, perfectly-judged for the snowy conditions. And that wasn't the only spicy goings-on, as the powder gave Hash Gomi no finer business opportunity, as within minutes of first snowfall HG was advertising sledges in various hues. Including trying to wedge your author with a large pink one, as well as playing pocket snowball. 2) Next runner-up was haring duo Knight Rider and Mudlark, for their December run 2286 Queens Park Tennis Club apres of chilli with rice+chutney and French stick for just a fiver, hash loves a bargain! And on the spice, seated Whose Shout shouted to bar-resident Rebel Without His Keys, 'bring over the spicy sauce'. To which Rebel queried, 'what the whole thing ?!' Rebel, I know it's a tennis club, but did you intend instead to flick-serve sauce blobs from bar to WS's plate? 3) Another duo, another spicy bargain, this time On On Don and Pompette, haring us back to the Blacksmith's Arms in Halland on the November run 2285. Where for just a tanner, it was a drink and a variety of tasty veg+nonveg curries with rice+popadom, that worked wonders to restore warmth. And it got a bit hot on-trail too, with Angel's sheer relief on exiting the misty field causing her to exclaim 'my feet are frozen, I hope there's a roaring log fire back at the pub !'. And with Hot Fuzz exclaiming in response, 'there's always a fire in my heart when I'm running with you !'. Before HF nearly landed straddling a barbed-wire topped stile, that threatened to cause a fire elsewhere in his person. 4) By being absent from the bash, Roaming Pussy narrowly-escaped the Spiciest Hash award, with her homegrown chilli glut. Which RP offered at many a recent hash, introducing to your author as 'they're only mild, eat them whole'. Which nearly blew off the top of my mouth! 5) The award winners, though, were, drumroll, hares Bouncer+Angel, for their fabulous+extensive curry home apres. This marked Bouncer's 30th hashiversary November run 2283 from Buckingham Park parcark. The pack were treated to poppadoms, samosas, bhajis with lime pickle, mango chutney, yogurt and mint, and biryani rice with sultanas. All circled around a voluminous curry of pumpkin, courgette, chickpeas and coconut milk, with nehari spice mix. And the trail was pretty hot also, with the pack encountering a naked couple in a steamed-up car, at the climax of the ascent, the formerly intimate encounter being bathed in hasher's torchlight. Phew, bit hot in here!

I said to my sister, "How do you stop the kids from finding their Christmas presents?"
 She said "Put them in the loft." "I said, "That's a bit cruel but I'll give it a go. Jackets on kids, up you go!"

PIGS WON'T BE THE ONLY ONES WRAPPED IN BLANKETS THIS CHRISTMAS

THIS YEAR AT CHRISTMAS, PLEASE TAKE A MOMENT TO THINK OF ALL THE SAD LONELY BOUNTIES LEFT AROUND MANY HOUSES

"So what do you want for Christmas?"

"Well, lately I've been really into groceries and gas. Utilities are cool. Stuff like that."

Please note: when ordering sprouts from @Tesco online, quantity 1 does not mean 1 bag of sprouts. It means 1 sprout. Thank you and good night

Alexa!
sing Jingle Bells!

ok... here's a recipe for cherry bakewells nan made these and said 'veggie pigs in blankets for you!'

For a great budget meal this Christmas here's a step by step recipe to cook stuffed whole chicken in an oven.

Step 1: Atleast look at the chicken.

Emitting a silent fart when opening a Dairylea Triangle will convince dinner guests it's an expensive French cheese

THE 12 DAVES OF CHRISTMAS!

REHASHING the Boxing Day hash

Run 2289 The Park View, Brighton – With sunshine bathing this 11am Boxing Day Bank Hol hash, whatever offerings or consumptions you made on Wednesday's Winter Solstice to encourage the sun's return, worked, so thank you! Less sunny was the sign-in sheet, which languished at just six individuals for days. That is until Bonking Queen informed hare Nasty Nips of an incurred snarf that meant names had to be typed rather than selected from dropdown. And as soon as NN kindly investigated and remedied that hurdle to participation, the pack stormed in, filling the sheet to a healthy 29. And so gathering outside this elevated castle of an establishment accessed via brick footbridge, the peaceful milling of the pack was interrupted by the screech of bicycle brakes that heralded the lastminute-dot-com arrival of Ride It Baby. Who's very first utterings enquired as to the availability of a loo enroute, with all options queried including domestic, commercial, public, and au-naturel. Seemingly RIB had been so busy imbibing Xmas refreshments that she'd not had a moment to de-tank. Fortunately it was a convenience that Whose Shout's place was just minutes into the trail. And so at first check, the hare conferred upon the pair special dispensation to sprint ahead to Chez WS, following not the true trail, not the false trail, but a 'pee-trail'. Later at circle, the de-tank RIB was of course topped-up with a DD. First though it was on-out E up Preston Drove, veering NE along Balfour Rd, then up the connecting steps to Osborne Rd. It was here that BQ participated in an adhoc 'Champion Of The Steps' competition, fielding also daughter Just River and son Just Otto, both new to BH7, and returning Just Pinks. With winner crowned at circle as, drumroll, River, a future hasher in the making maybe! Continuing E up Osborne Rd, here encountered was the first of four fishhooks, improbably a too-kind 2. Until at circle, NN revealed the counts were 2, 6, 1, 2 that cleverly spelled out the 26/12 date. A conundrum though as at this first hook, it was your author first, Peter Pansy's buggy-conveyed baby Just Penny second, and buggy-pushing PP third. PP's solution as to which two should fishhook was to 'loan' buggy+baby, also new to BH7, to Hot Fuzz, to run with. PP meanwhile ran the hook, earning himself DD for temporary baby abandonment! It was then switchback SW along Lowther Rd, to continue up Preston Drove, with a W-shape loop around Blakers Park. N up Ditchling Rd, trail dived through St Matthias Churchyard, to resume N along Hollingbury Park Ave. And then descend Hollingbury Rise W to enter woodland, encountering a colourfully-accessorised beech. Crossing Upper Roedale Cottages lane, the burbs were regained W, via unnamed lane to cross Ditchling Rd, and then descend Woodbourne Ave. Where trail zig-zagged via Northfield+Larkfield Wy, Surrenden Rd, Beechwood Av+Cl, and Braybon Av. And according to google, Old Ct Cl, reassuringly that's Court. A path W then gave way to Withdean Park SW traverse, exiting via Peacock Ln to London Rd, headed S. It was then E offpiste, across Surrenden Field, to curve S via Surrenden Cres then Rd and on-inn to the pub. Where after sustenance+refreshment, and the pack's move from the increasingly chilly terrace to the warm interior, circle was called, first asking newcomers Penny, River and Otto if trail was squelchy enough, muddy enough, and if we would be seeing them on-trail again. Penny burred something, while River and Otto varied on muddy-enough-ness. I'm sure we can find a consistency agreeable to both for their hopeful return. Meantime they were challenged with an apple juice DD each, while Penny had scored a formula milk DD earlier. Returnees Eccles+Hansel had scarpered, Just Richard was welcomed back, and continuing the yooof theme Bouncer+Angel's lads ET+Crackerjack were welcomed back with a DD, as if they needed! NN was then thanked for Boxing Day haring, and exposed for running through a check of his own making, earning DD together with PP for his running through a hook. Who doubly-earned for on-trail serious running yapping. Joining RIB for DD was Just Pinks, for her Xmas day consumption of an entire bottle of Baileys. The pub couldn't sell us a Mr Creosote style one-more-morsel Baileys shot for Pinks, so we made do with a JD. And then in a trialled-tradition from London City hash, the last DD was introduced by the RA pointing to a half of beer, and querying 'What's This?'. To which the pre-trained pack sung in response, 'It's The Final Down Down!', to the tune of The Final Countdown 1988 rock anthem by band Europe. With DD being awarded to Wiggy and to Bouncer for ignoring walker's trail marks, ploughing a parallel furrow of their own devising. Except that actually it wasn't the final DD, as DD under-beering meant there were two left. These were duly awarded to Cliffbanger, for being walker's leading light with his bejewelled Santa hat. And Just Richard, as honorary yooof and thus eligible for DD. Which gave the pack second opportunity at anthem belt-out. And then as trialled last week, circle was closed by RA's 'May The Hash Go In Peace'. Last week per training, the pack responded likewise. However research since has revealed the correct response is the far more apt 'May The Hash Go In Pieces'. The pre-trained pack responded so, indeed accurately describing the subsequent inebriated state of a number of the hardcore. In particular your author, who was understandably bloodily bit on the nose by Just Pink's dark-coated hash hound Lucy on going snout-to-snout. I'd do the same if I were her and some 3-pints-the-worse random stuck his snout in my zone! The sign-in sheet has suitably recorded Lucy's dining option in red. A preference not shared by kennel-mate Wonky Tail.

HAPPY BOXING DAY!

#	Name or Hash Handle	Prepaid	Staying at Pub	Run/Walk	Food Order	Comments
1	Nasty Nips	Yes	Eat In	☑ Hare	Plant-Based Burger with fries etc
2	Peter Pansy	No	Eat In	☑ Runner	Turkey & Smoked Ham Hock Pie etc
29	Just Penny	No	Drink Only	☑ Runner	No Food	Baby in buggy
30	Just Lucy	No	Eat In	☑ Runner	Dingleberry's nose	Hash hound
31	Just Wonky Tail	No	Drink Only	☑ Runner	No Food	Hash hound

Nothing screams "It's Christmas"* more than Mariah Carey... (*except Noddy, of course!)

So some genius has photoshopped her about to be murdered in a series of horror stills! How many can you identify?

Beer enthusiasts have been told not to say 'pub crawl' or 'happy hour' to be more inclusive and end 'lad culture' around drinking. Members of the Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA) should avoid using phrases such as 'join the lads for a swift few after work' as they could put off women from joining in. The updated guidelines instead advise members to say they are embarking on a 'pub tour' where they will 'savour a pint'. Earlier this year, the group launched a diversity drive in a bid to lose its 'male, pale and stale image' and attract more ethnic minorities, women and gay people.

CAMRA was established in 1971 to campaign for the survival of a wide variety of traditionally brewed quality real ales. It now boasts 160,000 members and 45 paid staff, working out of headquarters in St Albans. However, the 'brand guidelines' have drawn criticism from members, with one saying: 'Just call it what you want and don't be cowed or bogged down by what terminology CAMRA deems is safe.' According to The Telegraph, another commented: 'I have never in my life met a person who believed that a pub crawl literally meant drinking so much that you could not get to the next.' Tom Stainer, the chief executive of CAMRA, said: 'Our brand guidelines were updated in 2019 to provide guidance to our volunteers on fostering an inclusive and welcoming CAMRA experience for all. 'We believe that pubs play a vital role in providing a natural home for responsible drinking in a supervised environment and that moderate beer consumption can play a role in a healthy lifestyle.

Everyone seems to just remember the younger normal ants at this time of the year. The older quaint ants being forgot.

Obviously we don't need the names of the Ukrainian victims of Putin's end of life crisis muscle flexing. Have a go and, you never know, the answers may appear in the next issue.

Bury my hard drive with me mate.

An optimist stays up until midnight to see the new year in. A pessimist stays up to make sure the old year leaves.

Disappearing down a Christmas rabbit hole with The Camelford Arms...

Having been sufficiently amused by the Camelford Arms in Kemptown's COVID related Christmas posts to want to include them in the trash, but given the substantially reduced impact of COVID on our lifestyle, feeling that it was now or never, your editor went in search of some better quality versions than the scrappy ones stored, only to end up discovering another whole series of funny, punny, dog-related Christmas items recognising their status as the most dog-friendly pub in town!

IN THE NEWS ctd.

I only asked where they were from and all hell broke lose

Figures are in for the boxing day swim in Kent. 347 went in, 724 came back out! Where did they all come from?!

Incorporating Muppet of the month:

This is so sad...
When I was a child, my father (although some say he isn't really my father) cheated and didn't love my family. Later, my parents divorced.
Soon after my mother, who slept around, died in a car accident.
My brother and I had to live in my grandma's old house.
The whole family lived on my grandma's savings.
My uncle is thought to be a paedophile.
Grandma just died.
Dad, who talks to the trees, and is now 73, had to go out to work to support the family.
Dad has cut me off without a penny because I married an actress.
Life just isn't fair.
Prince Harry

An absolute classic from the Duke of Sussex pub in Chiswick. They have renamed their house ale...

Prince Harry is 100% royal, but Meghan Markle is 0% royal so their son is the half-blood Prince. If the next baby is a girl, it should be Princess Leia after her mum!

"we were watching The Lion King as a family and I started singing along and I sung 'and I just can't wait to be king' then everyone laughed but I didn't find it funny at all"

In June 1993, Willy took the toy from the fresh box of Rice Krispies when he knew it was my turn. It was devastating.

Harry's plans to avoid unwanted attention hit yet another snag after he accidentally authors an explosive tell-all memoir about his life in the Royal Family due for release in January 2023.

THE END

and other rude back of the trash Christmassy stuff

WARNING: Female aliens are kidnapping me with big cocks this Christmas. Obviously you're not in any danger, but I wanted to let you know that this spaceship is f*cking awesome!

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Dear apartment owners' association (or whatever you call yourselves), please use more lights or no lights. Thanks

It's not officially Christmas until you've told a roll of sellotape to f*ck off!

"The gold and frankincense were nice, but this myrrh is real primo shit!"

Christmas Cards done

Hope I got everyone's names right

In 1991 the Swedish company LOCUM sent out a christmas card to their customers, featuring a redesigned logo. This was the result. [NSFW] [x-post from /r/pics]

Have an Excellent

