

Trash #326 June 2023

Unless indicated, all r*ns are on Mondays at 19.00pm and all directions/ timings are approximate starting from Patcham roundabout A23/A27 junction. Please adjust journey time accordingly from your location.

Receding Hareline:

08/07/23	Poynings	St. Bernard 60 th birthday extra-curricular hash! ### Saturday 10am ###
10/07/23	TBC	Bouncer
17/07/23	Cock Inn, Ringmer	Pompette (Airman memorial)
24/07/23	Fountain, Plumpton Green	Gromit (Joint EGH3)
31/07/23	Fox On the Downs, Brighton	Ride-It, Baby & AnneRkey
14/08/23	Kentish Horse, Markbeech	Breaking Wind aka Britney Spears – Joint with everybody!
JANET STREET PORTER HASH FOR LOOSE WOMEN (see # 321) - Get your outfits sorted now! ###

Hashing around Sussex:

Rather slim pickings unless we have some kind hares who can help out our neighbours with a Sunday trail?

Hastings H3 - r*ns start at 10.66am (11.06am) unless indicated: 04/06/23 Cancelled

CRAP UK H3 - r*ns start at 11am unless indicated:
04/06/23 Cancelled

W&NK H3- r*ns start at 11am unless indicated:
18/06/23 Canceled due London – Brighton cycle/
Fathers Day

onononononononononononon

Thought for the day: Had a very disappointing Coronation Street Party. Not one person dressed up as Ken Barlow or Bet Lynch!

When your hash beach body is perfectly in tune with nature.

BH7 HASH EVENTS DIARY & NOTICES

DIARY DATES – see full list of events being attended by Brighton hashers on website under Away Hashes:

16-18/06/2023 Wessex H3 Summer Camp
~~30/6-2/7/2023 Funny French Weekend at the Kirks near~~
~~Gorron – cancelled due to lack of interest.~~

07-09/07/2023 St. Bernard's 60th party weekend

17-20/08/2023 Eurohash - Baarlo, The Netherlands at
The Dutch Castle de Berckt – Full

25-28/08/2023 UK Nash Hash Beverley, Yorkshire

08-10/03/2024 Interhash Queenstown, New Zealand - <https://www.interhash2024.com/>

BRIGHTON & SOUTH DOWNS CAMRA BRANCHES
2023 ALE TRAIL - GATWICK AlePort 90

As mentioned in the last issue and on hash nights, we are again taking part in the local summer ale trail. Full details on page 5, but a reminder please to hares to refer to the pubs list and, if possible pick your venue from the participating venues.

And keep your eyes and ears open for upcoming CRAFT hashes for bonus pub ticking opportunities!

Once complete we will send the passports off together and arrange hash overprinting of the shirts. On on!

Hash mismanagement, the latest who's who:

GM Pete 'Local Knowledge' Eastwood

On-Sec Don 'On-Don' Elwick

Webfarm Brent 'Keeps It Up' Crowle

Hare Raiser Ivan 'Fukarwe' Lyons

Beer Monster Kit 'Knightrider' Dawson

RA's Dave 'Dangleberry' King

Scott 'Nasty Nips' Heckle

John 'Bouncer' Biggins

Hash Cash Kit 'Knight rider' Dawson

Hash Trash John 'Bouncer' Biggins

Haberhash Kayleen ‘Wildbush’ Holland

Hash Horn Matt 'Rebel WHK' Spencer

SDW relay Tim 'Lily the Pink' Jones

Hashtorian David 'Spreadsheet' Evans

Christmas Hash Pat 'Ride-It, Baby' Morfitt

Hash awards Tim ‘Lily the Pink’ Jones

Ivan 'Fukarwe' Lyons

Think you can do better or just want to be involved in making a contribution? Please let any of the above know and an AGPU will be arranged shortly!

A stile for Phil 'Chopper' Mutton and upcoming haberhash sale

A gentle reminder to please contribute to the memorial stile for one of our founder hashers, Phil 'Chopper' Mutton who passed away in November '22. We are discussing a location with The National Trust somewhere in the Devil's Dyke area, scene of r*n #1 back in June 1978. You can contribute either by giving money in his name at the next hash, to Knightrider or Wildbush, or by transferring funds into the Brighton Hash House Harriers Account with a payment reference of "Phil" (Lloyds Bank : 30-67-72 / 31893463)

We are still considering the best location and most effective way to hold a t-shirt sale to raise additional funds, as well as enable newer members to grab a bit of hash kit, and it may be that this is held over to our first Annual General Meeting, known in hash parlance as an AGPU (they're usually short and sweet, let's get to the beer!).

Many thanks in advance.

ononononononononononononononononononon

On July 8th I turn 60. My intention is to hit it with enough momentum I am sure of coming out the other side. So there is a party planned if you want to join me for any/ all of it then please do. The party will not be at Saddlescombe but at a farm in Poynings. There is not a big enough barn at Saddlescombe for the ceilidh. At Poynings we will have camping; 2 pubs in easy walking distance, a barn big enough to get us all under cover.

The Plan is (I use that word very loosely):

Friday 7th July afternoon/ evening - Turn up, BBQ will be lit, bring own food to cook on them. Hopefully there will be enough folkies gathered in one place and a session or something will just happen and run on till late.

Saturday 8th July, 10:00am - There will be a HASH run for those who want to, or just a walk and possible pub lunch.

Afternoon - I am sorting some workshops probably Lindy Hop, a social couples folk dance, possibly Morris dancing of some sort; or alternatively just sit around in the sun drinking playing/listening and watching the world go round.

Evening – I hope to get a caterer on site for anyone who wants to, to buy food from. Followed at 8:00 pm by a Ceilidh and probably a session after that till late.

Sunday - get up sort yourselves out and leave.

I have sorted 6 casks of ale covering the full colour range from blond and hoppy to dirty black and wonderful. Which will be available on an honesty donation basis at £1 a pint. and a selection of soft drinks. If you want to drink anything different, then bring it yourself (If you don't want to be drinking out of flimsy plastics then bring a glass or tankard). Exact location awaiting confirmation from Mark the farmer but one of his two barns in Poynings area, I will confirm when I know.

Presents and cards - I already have far too much stuff so no presents at all! If you must, then bring drink or food to put on the bar for all to share. If you want any other information then ask me, but basically it is a mini folk festival for me and friends.

On On, St. Bernard (Charlie)

ART or PORN part 1 - probably art:

After Council killjoys order the removal of Jodie Kidd's cheeky pub sign at the Half Moon Kirdford, because it showed her backside, we examine the difference between art and porn (see last issue page 5 and news page this issue).

The Franklin Mint
Sponsored · 🌐

New In Stock! The Temptation of Medusa Sculpture

'I miss the old days when women were quiet, modest and covered up'

The old days: The Princess of Lichtenstein and a Countess had a topless sword fight over a disagreement about a floral arrangement.

REHASHING with Bouncer

northish, then west to cross Twineham Lane. We continued west to Great Wapses farm before making a U-turn to return on a parallel trail just a few yards north of the outwards route, giving several options for the wa*kers to SCB the prolific mud (we were warned!). Arriving at the excellent sip stop (seems an age since we last sampled Roamings cheesy feet!) very close to the finish, circle up was called to reward our hares on a cunning route. New boot was next called for Just Simon, who argued that he'd r*n with us before, but he'd made the schoolboy error of polishing his wellies so that you could see your face in them, and leaving the impression that his boots were new! Next up we had the disorganised triplet of One Erection, Dynorod and AnneRKey, none of whom had managed to register with varying excuses, but the latter had quite a day, falling in the first field, then announcing that she was taking her top off, which curtailed any checking by the male element as they held back for the show! Shirker was another in trouble for trying to get Trouble in trouble for shirking the fishhook, but Trouble put herself down as a runner, started walking, kept bursting into speed, then took the walkers short-cut. Make up your mind woman! And finally Flashing Johnny, true to EG form, immediately started walking as soon as runners returned at another fishhook. And so to the pub to drink to another great hash!

2310 Abergavenny Arms, Rodmell – Just 7 weeks after our last visit we were back at the Abergavenny for our hares first trail after I pressed Shirker for a pub on that previous occasion, to which he responded, "I know this area pretty well, I'll do it from here!" You never know what to expect with virgin hares, but the words 'sip stop' rang true as we set off up Mill Lane for a brutal start, tempered by the joyous sight of FRB's returning from the fishhook at the top! Heading south and down the pack was in good shape at the next check, but we now had the long drag of the farm track back to the Lewes Road where those in touch were advised that the farmer was aware of the forlorn calf. Unfortunately, some were still returning from the wrong direction, didn't get the message, and couldn't leave him on his own, so Hash Gomi ran all the way back to the farmhouse, while I endeavoured to make contact with the pack by phone. On the 3rd attempt to reach someone a slightly exasperated KIU responded reluctantly, being off trail himself at the time, but when he reached pack he called again to say the farmer knew, and that they wouldn't bother including us in the fishhooks! Wait, what? That's what they're for you rotten swine (pl.). So much of the trail, down to Southease, on to the river, north up the bank and back up to the sip stop, where finally we caught up, was just the two of us with HG suffering his extra mile, while I diligently attempted to incorporate all the fishhooks you buggers missed! The sip in Monks House car park, was quite excellent, thanks to Mudlarks retirement beer, despite the ribbing we were now getting which I was happy to take given that Dangleberry was absent so RA duties fell on YT! And so, back to the pub via the field edge, we were soon diving into the excellent burger and pint deal before circle was called outside in an effort to finally finish Mudlarks beer off. Hares Shirley and Trusty (as spellcheck decided Shirker & Tripsy should be known) were duly congratulated on a fine initiation, before Mudlark was also congratulated on his retirement and thanked for the beer, which took a moment as his first action on retirement was to reach for the crutches having damaged his leg somehow. I love it when people educate you with absolute conviction, and are absolutely wrong! This happened twice tonight, starting with the first hill when Bushsquatter said, "Of course, Rodmell is famous as the place where Virginia Wade filled her pockets with stones before drowning herself in the river." Surely Virginia Wade is alive and well, while Virginia Woolf of the Bloomsbury Set rests on the river bed for all eternity? This sat well with Knightriders proclamation that these Cow Slips along the river are looking amazing this year. We don't really have that many flowers hitting our radar in sufficient quantities to require a sound knowledge of what they are, but Cow Parsley is one of them, and you failed, Kit! On the subject of cows, Gomi's attempted rescue had to be noted, especially given the distance he covered and that he normally just materialises along trail and we rarely see him running, but there were those that knew we were behind and yet made no effort to see that we'd got the message! Enter stage right, Nasty Nips and Spreadsheet, with a special mention to the latter who, knowing Rebel's preference for holding his beer, asked our well endowed barmaid if she'd got any jugs! If memory serves both Numpty nominations were in fact rewarded, which included Shirker, who played the gentleman by holding the gate for the girls, stepping back as they came through and receiving a high dose of formic acid from the fresh spring nettles. Keeps It Up was the ultimate taker for aforementioned fishhook etiquette, with a dose of tech on the hash for good measure. Let that be a lesson! And another lesson came as we closed circle, as our lovely barmaid came over and seemed genuinely hurt that we'd not requested pub beers for the circle, choosing instead to use our own, thus saving them money! Oh dear, we can't win. Another great hash!

For more great pictures from the hash, mainly fishhooks and caption competitions, follow the link to Bushsquatters album:

https://photos.google.com/share/AF1QipN2_c2gt1EdFGON0NxUCOXmYvbXPjHvHA2qu6qJvRD0qxNapIOyjl05TdS8PI9eA?key=NEluZ_XJkNVgtWnVDZUdUUjhwWFlzSThDNGFcD3B3

CRAFT HASHING & CAMRA ALE TRAIL

This year's Ale & Cider Trail, the 28th Annual event, starts on the 2nd of June and finishes on the 30th of September, taking in 40 Pubs around the area of the Brighton & South Downs Branch of CAMRA.

The full list of participating pubs/clubs is shown below. Collect your passport and start the trail at any one of these locations from 2 June. This year it commemorates the 90th Anniversary of Commercial Operations at Gatwick Airport together with the “Spitfire Dray” deliveries of beer to the Normandy Beachhead after D-Day in June 1944 using Spitfire fighter aircraft equipped with the “Mark XXX Depth Charge” under-wing fittings. There are no records of beer delivery sorties originating from Gatwick, but who knows?

Please note that, this year, there is no dedicated Cider Rider part of the Trail; Cider drinkers can participate by having a pint of Real Cider, where available, in any of the listed pubs; a Cider T-Shirt will be available as an alternative to the Trail T-shirt, as detailed in the centre pages of the Passport. There will be a Bus Tour to selected pubs on the 24th of June.

Participating Pubs:

Brighton - Basketmakers Arms; Brick; Brighton Bierhaus; Evening Star; Great Eastern; Haus on the Hill; Hole in the Wall; Maris & Otter; Prince Albert

Burgess Hill - Quench Bar

Clayton - Jack and Jill Inn

Ditchling - White Horse

Falmer - Swan Inn

Firle - Ram Inn

Hassocks - BN6 Craft Beer & Tap

Haywards Heath - Hop Sun Taproom

Henfield - Henfield Club; Old Railway

Hove – Foghorn; Neptune Inn; Watchmaker's Arms

Isfield - Laughing Fish

Lewes - Black Horse; Brewers Arms; Elephant & Castle; Gardener's Arms;

John Harvey Tavern; Kings Head; Lewes Arms; Royal Oak

Newick - Crown Inn

Portslade by Sea - Stags Head Inn; Stanley Arms

Ringmer - Anchor Inn

Seaford - Old Boot Inn; Steamworks

Shoreham-by-Sea - Duke of Wellington; Piston Broke

Southwick - Southwick Beer Engine

Wivelsfield Green - Cock Inn

As previously mentioned, it would be helpful if hares could choose their pub venues from the above list to make it an experience for everybody, and we will send off the passports en masse and get the t-shirts overprinted as in past years.

Aside from that we will try and have a few CRAFT hash pub crawls to hit several pubs in one session.

Suggested dates are as follows:

July 14th or 21st – Friday evening pub crawl around Lewes (8 pubs available)

August 19th – Day time cycle crawl around Hove (3); Portslade (2); Southwick (1); and Shoreham (2)

September 22nd – Friday evening pub crawl around Brighton (9 pubs available).

Obviously it won't be possible to visit every pub, but as you only need 20 stamps to secure a free t-shirt, it's not necessary either! This has always been a fun undertaking and we have lots of new folk in the hash since our last trail in 2018, so please join in as much as possible, and collect a passport to visit pubs outside of hash times too. On on!

On on!

on

Imagine life =without= BEER. Now slap yourself and never do it again!

I went to the pub and asked if they did cash back. "Yes we do", replied the barmaid.

“Good”, I said. “Can I have the £40 I spent here last night please? The wife’s going fucking mental!”

A cartoon illustration of a monkey's face. The monkey has a large, wide smile showing its teeth. It is wearing a brown crown with gold-colored spikes and jewels. The monkey has large ears and a serious expression on its forehead.

A group of nine people, including children and adults, posing for a photo outdoors. They are dressed in various costumes, including a Union Jack cape, a crown, and a large purple pom-pom headpiece. The background shows a brick building and a sign.

VISITOR CIRCUS BOY
LEADS THE ON INN!

power by informing the sip wasn't where the w*lkrs map said. Right-royally-welcomed were virgin Just Lou, visitor Circus Boy, and returnee Tony The Albanian, from Macedonia. TTA said next time he'd be more badly behaved to make good on receiving DD. Earlier, Lou had remarked she was changing into socks, HG queried 'just socks?', but decorum was preserved by our newcomer continuing to sport an African print green dress with green facepaint and tiara to complete Shrek's Princess Fiona love-interest look. Only slightly diminished by odd socks. HG for his part received DD for earlier espousing Cash Is King, whereas infact Chas Is King. And joining HG in DD was Ride It Baby, for her lastmin adorning with BH7 pink collapsible cup crown, with fetchingly matched pink sweatband tiara. Lastly, it was Hairy Dog Brewery numpty mug awardee Shirker Ninezing's gift to award, selecting other half Tripsy Daisy for actually dropping a chopper on his hand. TD, after some spillage fumbles, managed to grasp snout. SN fortunately could still grasp pint, so with circle closed in customary fashion, we joined SN in getting gilded.

CHAS
~~CASH~~ IS KING

THE WORLD GOES SLIGHTLY CORONATION CRAZY

The internet captions the pictures...

When you pop down the middle aisle at Aldi

'Bit disappointed the gift shop was closed, would have liked a wider choice of sandwiches in the cafe'

"See that bloke? Literally cannot sweat"

"I'll have the soup of the day to start, then I'll have the rump steak, medium rare, with chips, a glass of Pinot, and Sticky Toffee Pudding for afters, Cheers"

When you miss with the outfit:

11 AM: grand dad's coronation

Royal interest rises as Bank Holiday announced:

"So I guess what I'm trying to say is...if it's nice outside and you're not at work just start day drinking"

Have to say my street party was a disappointment

When someone asks why I'm in such a good mood

Apparently King Charles farted at a crucial point of the ceremony. But everyone ignored it as noble gases don't cause a reaction!
King Charles has announced that Buckingham Palace will only use environmentally friendly energy. The Crown Joules.
In B&Q yesterday I asked the assistant 'Do you have any Jubilee Clips?' 'Sorry, no, but we have some footage of the Coronation!'
Now that he's king, Charles is selling his Royal Towel. Anybody want to buy a heir dryer?

REHASHING - Dangleberry goes on on...

Run 2309 Ruby Pub and Hotel, formerly the Hikers Rest – A rather excellent, varied and feature-rich trail did Nasty Nips gift us, on only his second haring. Choosing the Ruby, a neighbourhood pub of battleship proportions, painted appropriately in battleship grey. After comprehensive chalk talk, our hare bid the pack W up Park Rd then Close, to take overgrown snook S out to Wild Park, skirting the Coldean burbs to re-enter onto Highfields. Before heading N to curve NW to Reeves Hill, scene of the evening's first DD-earning sin: A 3-way check included an exceedingly steep chalky ascent to gate, which proved false. And at on-back call, caused Lily The Pink's off-the-lead You Stupid Bastard aka Bentley to descend slithering and sprawling in a heap upon the road :-/ And that wasn't the only doggy sprawl, as just a short distance on, headed NE via Nanson Rd and Ashburnham Dr, Little Swinger concluded a true trail alley false, erroneously heading back and on stepped exit, tripping, apparently at the sight of St Bernard. That earned her DD, without even the appeasement of a swing, trail passing oh-so-near to a fine example, that miss earning NN DD. And then we had Circus Boy performing slalom of bollards worthy of a Crufts Hero Dog, earning him DD for 'trying-too-hard'. Back on-trail, the alley was exited via garages to Twyford Rd and Ingham Dr. Crossing Hawkhurst Rd, it was snooks N to Selham Close+Dr, heading E to pass St Mary Magdalene church, a flint barn till 1955. A short leg N up Coldean Ln, and then we out into countryside, ascending path NE to bridge the A27 bypass, snaking up through Stanmer's Great Wood, to enter the park and pass the house and round the church. Notable for having a donkey wheel akin to Saddlescombe Farm's, and also for hosting several episodes of Mr Bean. And if the two are unrelated, that's a sorely missed opportunity! Headed N through the village, the Stanmer city limits saw trail ascend E to Grubbings wood, scene of NN's second DD-earning sin, namely on-the-fly conversion of summit regroup to fishhook 6. The already summited considered it inapplicable, as they hadn't passed fishhook, rather it materialised. And talking of flies, both Ann R Key and Bonking Queen reported on-trail 'flies in the mouth'. One even swallowed. Though they weren't divulging whom, so both were awarded DD. Next, it was fine elevated traverse SE, to briefly enter Stanmer Wood, before descending to exit the park beside the pavilion. Heading E along University Wy, trail was found S through the bypass tunnel to Falmer station. Though not before Ride It Baby committed SCB transgression by bounding up the steps, rather than take the arrowed snaking path. With hare making clear distinction between this DD-earning unofficial SCB, and the railway overbridge official SCB where hare permitted steps instead of ramp. Heading W beside the railway, it was underbridged to Woollards Wy, as was the Lewes Rd Flyover, to enter South Downs National Park woodland bordering the road. Though not before our hare poked that we'd again crossed the bypass, and so wouldn't we need to un-cross? But we'd crossed just the flyover, and were actually on-inn. Where after the usual refreshment+sustenance, circle was called, first welcoming returnees Blonde Vixen and Silver Fox. Before 1E drew the pack's attention to a Kemptown Charles Street Tap Great Escape poster, featuring two gentlemen bearing uncanny resemblance to our Local Knowledge and Not So Fast, billing the pair as DILF's, ahem. Following DD's, Numpty was awarded to BQ for arriving to host a children's party on the wrong day, thus gracing us not them with a delightful watermelon outfit in colours mirroring the green checks with pink mark-thru's in which NN daubed this accomplished trail.

on

Muppets of the month

Holly Willoughby, Philip Schofield and Gino de Campo were walking over a bridge when Holly tripped and got her head stuck in the railings. Without a sideways glance, Gino pulls aside her G-string and shags her senseless.

He stands back and says to Schofield, "Your turn". Philip bursts into tears and says, "My head won't fit in the railings"

Breaking News: Philip Schofield has left ITV but will soon be appearing on Dave. Dave is 15 and currently taking his GCSE's.

Exclusive pic of car chase involving Ginge and Whinge.

After a gruelling and sometimes dangerous 2 hour car chase, the Paparazzi finally managed to lose Harry and Meg.

Re-cycling the Conservative party after the local elections:

Politicians and nappies have one thing in common. They should both be changed regularly and for the same reason.

Politics is supposed to be the second oldest profession. I have come to realize that it bears a very close resemblance to the first.

What happens if a politician drowns in a river? That is pollution. What happens if all of them drown? That is solution!!!

Politician : One who shakes your hand before elections and your Confidence after.

Sign on the back of a Septic Tank Truck: "Caution - this truck is full of Political Promises."

IN THE NEWS

Jodie Kidd's Half Moon pub sign showing her naked bottom banned by council killjoys
Grant Rollings 18 May 2023

EX-model Jodie Kidd was ordered by killjoy council officials to take down the cheeky new sign for her Half Moon pub — because it showed her backside.

The 44-year-old landlady and TV star appeared naked from behind in the painting, which was put up in front of the 16th century boozer. Jodie replaced the traditional image of a face in a crescent moon with the racier one. The amusing play on the name was supposed to help raise money for charity at the pub in Kirdford, West Sussex. But village locals did not see the funny side.

Jodie, who has co-owned the pub for seven years, told The Sun: "We had to take it down because we received too many complaints. It was really sad. Villagers thought it wasn't fitting for a 16th century pub to have an arse hanging out. They complained and the council told us to take it down."

The Half Moon was one of a dozen traditional pubs to have their signs reimaged with a raunchy twist by the Stella Artois: The Pub Renaissance campaign. The original artwork featuring Jodie's own "half moon" was auctioned off alongside several copies in aid of Hospitality Action, which supports anyone in the industry. Jodie said: "The campaign was there to raise money for people in the industry suffering as a result of rising energy bills. I was proud to be part of the campaign. If they didn't understand it was for charity and helping the hospitality industry, then I'm sure they were thinking 'why is our landlady getting her butt cheeks out?' They must have thought 'she's gone completely mad'."

on

So that Rolf Harris's grave cannot be interfered with he has been buried at sea. The exact location hasn't been revealed but apparently it's between 2 little buoys.

Can't believe Rolf Harris has died at 93. I was hoping he'd get to be a hundred so we could call him a centipede. I'll have a "W" please Rachel 🙄 call him a centipede.

My biggest mistake
was betting on Arsenal
to win the league,
insists Ivan Toney

by Mark Molloy 2 hours ago

Frank Lampards hope of becoming the first manager to get two teams demoted in one year fails after he joins Chelsea too late in the season.

Attached are the most recent maths exam papers for your reference.

MATHS TEST FOR COMPREHENSIVES

Name _____

Nickname_____

Gang Name_____

1. Simon has 0.5 kilos of cocaine. If he sells an 8 ball to Matt for 300 quid and 90 grams to Ollie for 90 quid, what is the street value of the rest of his hold?
2. Damon pimps 3 bitches. If the price is GBP40 a ride, how many jobs per day must each bitch perform to support Damon's GBP500 a day coke habit?
3. Crackster wants to cut the kilo of cocaine he bought for 7,000 quid to make a 20% profit. How many grams of Strychnine will he need?
4. Trev got 6 years for murder. He also got GBP350,000 for the hit. If his common law wife spends GBP33,100 per month, how much money will be left when he gets out?

Extra Credit Bonus: How much more time will Trev get for killing the slapper that spent his money?

5. If an average can of spray paint covers 22 square metres and the average letter is 1 square metre, how many letters can be sprayed with eight fluid ounce cans of spray paint with 20% extra paint free?
6. Liam steals Jordan's skateboard. As Liam skates away at a speed of 35mph, Jordan loads his brother's Armalite. If it takes Jordan 20 seconds to load the gun, how far will Liam have travelled when he gets whacked?

MATHS TEST FOR PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Name _____

(If longer please continue on a separate sheet)

School _____

Daddy's/Mummy's Company _____

1. Harry smashes up the old man's car, causing x amount of damage and killing 3 people. The old man asks his local Chief Constable to intervene in the court system, then forges his insurance claim and receives a payment of y . The difference between x and y is three times the life insurance settlement for the three dead people. What kind of car is Harry driving now?
2. Fiona's personal shopper decides to substitute generic and own-brand products for the designer goods favoured by her employer. In the course of a month she saves the price of a return ticket to Fiji and Fiona doesn't even notice the difference. Is she thick or what?
3. Tristram fancies the arse off a certain number of debutants, but he only has enough Rohypnol left to render 33.3% unconscious. If he has 14 tablets of Rohypnol, how is he ever going to shag the other two thirds?
4. If Verity throws up 4 times a day for a week she can fit into a size 8 Versace. If she only throws up 3 times a day for two weeks, she has to make do with a size 10 Dolce & Gabbana. How much does liposuction cost?
5. Henry is unsure about his sexuality. Three days a week he fancies women. On the other days he fancies men, ducks and vacuum cleaners. However he only has access to the Hoover every third week. When will he stand for parliament?

on

What they didn't show you on the 99 channels with nothing on:

THE END

ART or PORN part 2 - probably porn:

